Junior Prom

The weeks leading up the Class of 2007's Junior Prom were filled with anticipation. Students scrambled to finalize limousine reservations, corsage and boutonniere orders, and to cram in one last session at the local tanning salon. But on Friday, May 12, 2006 all of our anticipation came to an end as the evening we had been waiting for since our freshmen year finally arrived. Dressed to the nines, we stepped out of our limos and party buses and walked up the pathway into the elegant Castleton Hotel in Windham, NH. Despite the overcast skies, our spirits were not dampened; we were determined to have the night of our lives. After posing for pictures, we crammed onto the dance floor. We continued dancing throughout the evening until our legs were ready to give out beneath us. As the night came to a close, Mr. Coletti delivered a farewell speech. As we filed out of the ballroom, we all knew that we had experienced a magical night that we would never forget.

Emily Legere and Keri Donaghue make a cute pair!

Kelley Keegan and Josh Bilodeau slow dance the night away.

Jeremy Solomon embraces his date Marcy Mannarino.

Nicole McCoy and Kevin Maigatter enjoy a "golden" moment.

Louise Comerford and Jonathan Josselyn relax at their table.

Taylor Michaelsen and Mike Barrata get swept away by the music.

Mary Burns and Joe Michalik show off their moves.

Tim Amaral and Meghan McCarty get close.

Melissa Shea and date make a dramatic entrance.

Jessica Dannahey and Dan Cote get close on the dance floor.

Mike Harrington and Heather Pacheco take a spin on the dance floor.

Halloween

As Halloween approached, excitement filled the hallways of BMHS. What crazy costumes would the members of the Class of 2007 wear this year? When the day finally arrived it came as no suprise that the wacky spirit of our class was out in full force. Upon entering the Senior Parking lot, we were greeted by a gang of wild gorillas. But the insanity did not stop there. From packs of Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles to aliens from out of space, the Class of '07 really showed off their quirky personalities!

Right: Mike Voegelin, Ryan Sylvia, Dan Sweeney, DJ Paron and Nick Szoke go ape for Halloween.

Below: Chelsea Mitchell and C.J. Ferola are all whiskers.

Spirit Week

From November 15th to 22nd, the annual BMHS Spirit Week took place, infecting the student body with school spirit. On Sports Day, the beginning of Spirit Week, members of the Class of 2007 donned sports jerseys and other creative costumes to show their class spirit. The seniors easily clinched first place, a trend that continued throughout the week's competitions. From Sports Day to Class Color Day, the Class of '07 dominated the competition with more than ninety percent of the senior class participating each day. However, the true spirit of the class was most evident on the final day of the ultra-competitive Penny War. As the Penny War competition was coming to a close, members of the senior class, led by a trio of musicians, paraded through the hallways and into the cafeteria carting numerous penny-filled jugs. This generous and entertaining effort put the Class of '07 far ahead of the competition and the Penny War raised a grand total of $8,497.86 for the Billerica Food Pantry.

CJ Ferola and Keri Donaghue are all pumped up!

Pep Rally

On the day of the annual Thanksgiving Pep Rally, the student body showed their school pride by donning green and white and enthusiastically marching into the gym. Cheers, chants and foot stomping reverberated throughout the gym as each class filed into their assigned bleachers. But no class was louder than the Class of '07, who whistled, chanted and screamed until they were hoarse. When the Pep Rally finally got underway, the fall sports captains were escorted into the gym by members of the cheerleading squad. The captains delivered speeches, which highlighted their season accomplishments to the thunderous applause of the crowd. High energy performances by the cheerleaders, band and color guard unified the crowd and got everyone pumped up for the showdown against Chelmsford. As the gym reached maximum volume, Coach Flynn took the floor and guaranteed the student body a victory; the crowd went nuts. Finally, Ms. Maleiko and Ms. Mikels took the mic to announce the Spirit Week victors: the Class of '07 was declared champions yet again! The seniors erupted as their class officers claimed their prize.

Thanksgiving Game

The 2006-2007 Thanksgiving showdown is one that will be remembered for a long time to come. On this freezing day, Billerica fans, bundled in their warmest clothes, filled the stands to support their team. Throughout the game, the Indians, led by senior captains John Dascoli, Brent Loveless, Pat Dapkas, Steve Murray and Gil Ynostroza, put up a valiant effort. At the end of regulation time, the game was tied and went into overtime. It took five overtimes for Chelmsford to finally pull ahead to win 53-51. Despite this heartbreaking loss, the Billerica fans did not lose faith. Rather, they admired the 2006-2007 Indians team for their hard work and dedication.

Superintendent of Schools

Dear Class of 2007,

The future is yours. It will be filled with boundless opportunities and the independence of adult life. Will society meet the challenges ahead? How will you measure yourself to these challenges?

I can assure you that the positives will outweigh the problems. Keep the winning spirit and an attitude of success. I know you can be a credit to yourselves, your families, Billerica Memorial High School, and to the Town of Billerica.

I join with the Billerica School Committee in congratulating each and every one of the Class of 2007. May your future be filled with happiness and achievement.

Congratulations and best wishes,

Anthony Serio, Ed.D.

June 2007

Dear Graduates,

I would, once again, like to congratulate you on your successful completion of your high school career. In educating you, we have tried to accomplish three things: we have introduced you to some of the best thinking of the past; we have sought to prepare your minds for an uncertain future where knowledge and information will be drawn upon in uncertain ways which may be difficult to anticipate; and, we have tried to model aspects of civility in the treatment of people and things. We ask that you continue to draw upon these influences in order to identify with the ethical, moral, and responsible aspects of your goals. In doing so, we hope that as you pursue those goals, you will continue to develop a growing capacity for determining what is appropriate and what is right.

As a group, you, the Class of 2007, have learned the principles that we have sought to teach you. You are well prepared to meet the challenges of a future filled with both opportunity and some uncertainty, and you have shown us that you are capable of acting in ways that promote common good that unites us all in common cause.

With that said, I look toward your futures with the greatest confidence.

Congratulations and best wishes,

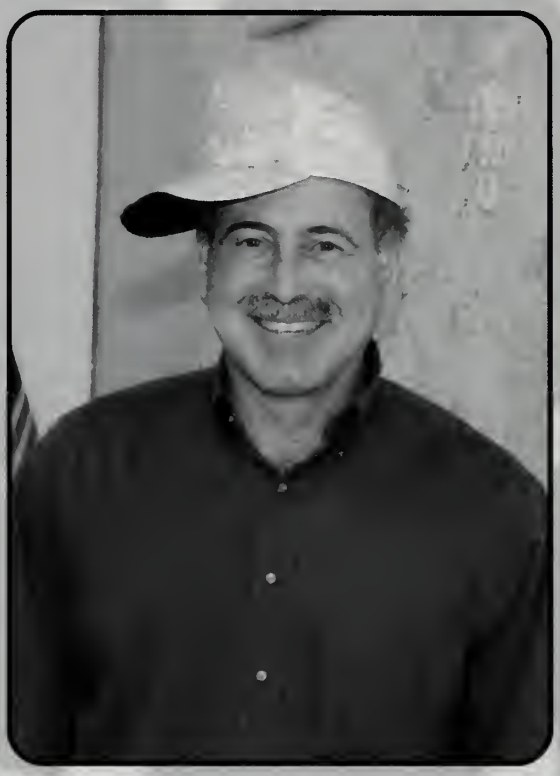
Mr. Sam Colangelo



Mr. Sam Colangelo taught in Billerica Public Schools from 1970 to 2004. Over those thirty-four years, he taught both History and Health; he was also the Varsity tennis coach. Mrs. Johansen describes him as the type of person who could "walk into a room full of students he had never met before and capture their attention in seconds."

Ms. Berry remembers how her doorknob was broken when she first started teaching and when she asked for someone to fix it nothing happened. Mr. Colangelo found out about it and went and made sure it was fixed. "It was only a stupid doorknob," she said, "but that incident is really important to me because it made me feel welcome in a new school."

"He was just full of life; he had a passion for life. He was very funny, but he also had a serious and extremely thoughtful and caring side as well. " Ms. Molloy

"For those students lucky enough to have him, Mr. Colangelo gave his all." A.J. Lever

"Last April I went to Germany with Mr. Colangelo and learned what a wonderful man he was. He was always making jokes and everyone on the trip loved him. He has made a positive mark on the BMHS community and everyone that he knew which will last an eternity." Whitney Gauger

Soccer isn't a matter of life and death, it's much more important than that.

The season in review...

Led by senior captains Aaron Hopkins, CJ Fiumara, and Mike Gramzow, the 2006-2007 boys soccer team had an exciting and nail-biting season. Boasting a record of 9-6-3, the team was a contender for the MVC Championship. In order to stand a chance at claiming this title, the team had to upset the fierce Haverhill team. On a freezing cold Senior Night, the two teams finally faced off in front of a wild Billerica crowd. Despite their best efforts, the team lost this match-up in a devastating 1-0 loss. Because of their outstanding record, however, the team still qualified for the state tournament. In post-season play, the team held off the Brookline team 0-0 until halftime. Unfortunately, Brookline scored 2 goals in the second half, bringing the boys soccer team to an end. Contributing seniors included: Mark Lohkamp, Bobby Fraser, Josh Bilodeau, Nick Beaudet, Cody Johnson, Kyle Dooley, Jesse Tannetta, Matt Tieri, DJ Royston, and manager Jim Rice.

The season in review...

Led by senior captain Katie McNamara and junior captains Derith Fernandes and Leana Suarez, the 2006 Girls Varsity Soccer team started the season with a strong 5-1 win over Lowell and a thrilling 6-0 victory over Chelmsford. As the season progressed, the team faced many challenging opponents, including the notorious Andover and Central Catholic teams. In spite of this, the girls had a winning record of 12-3-3 as the regular season came to a close, leaving them tournament-bound. In their first state game against Salem, the girls scored 5 goals, setting a school record for the most goals scored in a state tournament game. In their quarterfinal game, the girls displayed miraculous teamwork. As a result, they scored in the tenth second of the game. This also set a state record for the quickest goal scored in a tournament game. Despite the girls' hard work and determination, the tournament didn't end with a result that properly reflected their season. However, the girls had a great season and will definitely improve next year.

The season in review...

The 2006-2007 Boys' Cross Country team had an extremely fortunate season. Under the guidance of coach Joe Bradford, the boys took the MVC Division Two title this year. With two single point victories that added a few new grey hairs on Coach Bradford's head, the boys had an incredible season. The team had personal bests almost every week. Under the leadership of captains Joe Michalik, Jeremy O'Neill, and Jeff Diamond, the team was in great shape. Notable clutch performances came from Mike Craft, Austin Pena, Corey Donahoe, Dan Girard, and Captains Michalik and O'Neill. Senior runners include Joe Michalik, Jeremy O'Neill, Max Scholl, Jeff Diamond, Derek Norman, Don Strachan, Chris Slater, and Nathan Wan.

The season in review...

Under the guidance of Coach Cullen Hagan, the 2006 Girls Cross Country team had a great season, finishing with a 5-5 record. With help from "the pack" and senior captains Sydney Fitzpatrick, Becca O'Brien, Jenny Lucey, and Louise Comerford, the team placed fifth at MVCs and eighth at the Division 1 state meet. After the state meet, Fitzpatrick continued on to the All-State meet, placing sixth overall. Captain O'Brien, Monique Girard, Katie Burns, and Jordan Hurley received the MVC All-Star award, while Fitzpatrick was named Runner of the Year, MVC All-Conference, and Boston Globe All-Scholastic. Senior runners included Fitzpatrick, O'Brien, Lucey, Comerford, and manager Elizabeth Peña. Overall, the team had fond memories of pasta parties, bus and van rides, and just running together.

The season in review...

The 2006-2007 girls volleyball team was extremely successful, finishing off their season with a record of 14-5. In addition, their strong season propelled them to States ranked as sixth. Unfortunately, the team wasn't able to meet their goal of winning the MVCs, due to the amazing record of the Andover team. The Billerica squad was, however, the only team to beat Andover, who was previously undefeated. The team's unity, in addition to their talent, allowed them to succeed. The team was led by senior captains Nicole Cataldo and Meghan McCarty. The starting lineup was mostly comprised of seniors, with the notable exception being setter Caitlyn DePierro, a junior. Contributing senior players included captains Nicole Cataldo and Meghan McCarty, Kelly Loder, Ariel Fennelly, Lauren Glavin, Michelle Forti, and Keri Donaghue.

The season in review...

During the 2006-2007 season, members of the BMHS golf team worked toward improving their individual games so they could succeed as a team. Under the leadership of senior captains John Shea and Derek Infanger, the team spent endless hours at the Billerica Country Club working on their golf techniques. Putting, driving and chipping were among the many skills the team members sought to perfect. As a result of their hardwork and dedication, the team improved greatly and many team members ended the season shooting the best games of their lives. Senior team members included captains John Shea and Derek Infanger as well as Mike Horan, Sean McGinness and Phil Girard.

The season in review...

The 2006-2007 Indians squad was a determined group that played every game to the final whistle and didn't stop until every down was played. The squad was led by senior captains Brent Loveless, Pat Dapkas, Steve Murray, Gil Ynastrosa, and John Dascoli, who all led the team to battle out every game. Memories were made with huge "go-for-it Gil" touchdown tosses by Gil Ynastrosa and the tenacious defensive stops that Loveless, Dapkas, Murray, and the rest of the team worked for throughout the season. Though the 3-8 record halted the seniors's quest for the state title, the Indians were relentless and captured a spectacular victory against St. John's Prep. Of course, every season is measured by the outcome of the Billerica-Chelmsford game. Even though both teams had no playoff bids, the Indians played what man believe to be one of the greatest Thanksgiving games ever. Five overtimes had passed when the final whistle blew and the Indians dropped a tough game 53-51. No matter what, the boys in the "green and white" played their hearts out all season and made the season a memorable one.

The season in review...

The cheerleaders started the season with another new coach and only eight returning members. Captains Lindsey Spencer, Kaleigh McGrath, Nicole McCoy and Kristyn Yianacopolus had the resonsibility of teaching the many new incoming cheerleaders. Along with the help of other seniors CJ Ferola and Larissa LaFauci, the team struggled to start anew. After a slow summer start, expectations were not high as new cheerleaders struggled to learn boola boola. The squad may not have been perfect on the sideline but they showed their prowess on the competition floor. The team placed second at the Middlesex Valley Conference, which qualified them for regionals. At regionals, the team managed to place second again, allowing them to go to States ranked in the top three. BMHS history was made with a fifth place finish at States and a bid to Nationals. The season's hard work and dedication paid off with this amazing and memorable competition record.

Hard work. Dedication. Commitment. These words were no strangers to the members of the 2006-2007 swimming and diving team. In the pool and on the diving board, the team pushed themselves to their limit every day. Led by senior captains Karen Veilleux, Mary Burns and Emily Legere, the team's hard work paid off. At the MVCs the team faced off against their rival Methuen, a team that narrowly beat them earlier in the season. The Billerica team fought hard and with outstanding efforts by seniors Katie Hurd, Deb MacEachern, Heather Perkins, Taylor Michaelsen, and Erin Kelly, the team earned a second place finish in this exciting meet. Although the team's season ended here, several of the team's relay teams, as well as swimmer Kim Moore, qualified for Sectionals and ultimately States. Throughout this exciting seaon, team manager Whitney Gauger always provided her support and her enthusiasm. Senior members of the team were Katie Hurd, Mary Burns, Heather Perkins, Emily Legere, Karen Veuilleux, Deb MacEachern, Erin Kelly, Whitney Gauger, and Taylor Michealson.

A recap of the season....

Led by senior captains Nick Szoke, Brent Loveless, Jeremy O'Neill and Cody Johnson the 2006-2007 Boys Winter Track team worked hard during the indoor season. Although they finished with a 1-6 record, there were many individual stand out performances throughout the season. For instance, Nick Szoke and Chris Slater excelled at hurdles, while Joe Michalik, Jeremy O'Neill and Cody Johnson led the distance team. In field events, D.J. Royston and Nathan Wan competed in high jump. Szoke, Johnson, and the 4x800 team of O'Neil, Johnson, Austin Pena and Corey Donahoe qualifed for the State meet at the Reggie Lewis Center in Boston.

Girls Winter Track

A recap of the season...

On February 16, 2007 fourteen girls traveled to the Reggie Lewis Center to compete in the state meet, making BMHS history. This was the hightest number of girls that ever qualified for states during the indoor season. This accomplishment is indicitive of the stupendous 2006-2007 season. Led by seniors Emily Legere, Sydney Fitzpatrick, Katie Newcomb, Robyn Higgins, Meghan McCarty, Marcy Mannarino, Becca O'Brien, Louise Comerford, and Jenny Lucey, the 2006-2007 winter track team finished with a record of 4-3 altogether and 4-1 in their division. Newcomb & Higgins were key in the shot put, while Legere, Mannarino, and McCarty helped out the sprint team. Rounding out the senior events were Fitzpatrick, O'Brien, Comerford, and Lucey in distance and mid-distance. At the end of the season McCarty recieved the MVC All-Star Award for placing fourth at MVCs. Although there were some tough losses (losing to Chelmsford by 1/3 of a point!) through out the season, the team stuck together and had a successful season.

Wrestling

A recap of the season...

With a dual meet record just below .500 and high team scores in many of the top tournaments in the area, the 2006-2007 wrestling team easily had one of their best seasons. The team was led by senior captains Rob Chase and Ron Fusco and junior captain Kenny Anderson. Seniors Tony Vaglica, Zach Holmes, Brian Trischitta, Josh Bearce, and Kevin Whitney also contributed to the successful season. Captain Rob Chase had many hard fought matches throughout the season. Meanwhile, Co-captain Ron Fusco really came into his own during his senior season. He placed 2nd at the Big Red Tourney, 5th at the Lowell Holidays, 1st at the Chelmsford Tournry, 1st at sectionals, 3rd at the Division 1 state Meet and was only one win away from placing at the All State Meet. He finished his season with an overall record of 37 wins and 9 losses.Tony Vaglica also had a great season finishing over .500 for individual matches. Although Zach Holmes started the season late due to an injury, his midseason return was impressive. He placed 1st at the Big Red Tourney, 5th at the Chelmsford Tourney and 5th at sectionals. While newcomer Brian Trischitta worked hard to improve his skills, second year wrestler Kevin Whitney came into his own winning his first match (and several other thereafter). Finally, Josh Bearce proved to be a tough opponent finishing just below .500 for the year. Of course, junior captain Kenny Anderson's impressive record of 37-9 bodes well for next season.

Boys Basketball

A recap of the season...

As Coach Dagle says, "It's all about Billerica pride." The 2006-2007 boys' basketball embodied this belief. Although the team's record doesn't reflect it, the team had a great season. Led by senior captains John Shea, Sean McGinnness and John Palumbo, as well as seniors Kevin Maigatter and Matt Power, the team managed to make the season a memorable one. Whether they were playing their hearts out on the commencing "Operation Desert Storm," the team always worked their hardest. Although they did not achieve their goal of making the State Tournament, the team displayed more heart, energy and spirit than any of the teams that opposed them. At the end of the season their wins and losses didn't matter, what mattered was that they played with the hearts of champions.

Girls Basketball

A recap of the season...

The 2006-2007 Girls Basketball team got off to a strong start displaying excellent team work in preseason play. The team, lead by Senior Captains Kelly Loder and Katie McNamara as well as seniors Lauren Glavin and Courtney Hentz, put forth a strong effort throughout the season. Despite a challenging league, the girls progressed throughout the season and proved that they could hold their own against anyone. The team kept up their moral and never gave up. As a result, they were in state contention until the very end. Unfortunately, losing an upsetting game to Framingham ended the girls season as well as their hopes of making the state tournament. The girls ended the season with a respectable 10-11 record, leaving room for its many returners to improve upon next year.

Winter Cheerleading

A recap of the season...

Plagued by many injuries and illnesses at the beginning of the season, the 2006-2007 Basketball Cheerleading team was unable to compete at the elite level that they had in previous seasons. Still, senior captains Nicole McCoy, Kaleigh McGrath, Kristyn Yianocopolous and Lindsey Spencer managed to keep the teams's spirit high. With the precision and athleticism of fellow seniors CJ Ferola and Larissa LaFauci, the squad turned their early misfortunes into an opportunity to rebuild their squad for next season. By the season's end, three members of the team were even recruited by college cheer teams. Kaleigh was recruited by the University of Chicago and both Nicole and Kristyn will be cheering at Westfield State.

Boys Hockey

A recap of the season...

In a matter of just one season, the BMHS boys hockey transformed itself from the underdog team of 2005-2006 to a contender in the elite MVC. Led by senior captains Derek Infanger, on defense, and Gerard Jacobs, on offense, the 2006-2007 boys hockey team fell one win short of the tournament. The season started out with an exciting home win against Medford. Next, the team dominated Malden Catholic, who was placed in the top eight, in a 4-1 upset. In this season defining match up, goalie Sam Anderson's net tending skills shut down the opposition. Another big game included a 2-2 tie against rivals Chelmsford, when Gerard Jacobs tied the game with 1.8 seconds left in the game. The team went on to defeat Chelmsford again later in the season in a 5-1 game, which put them in tournament contention. However, they were then defeated by Longmeadow, ending their tournament bid.

Girls Hockey

A recap of the season...

After a long two weeks of tryouts and hard practices, the girls' varsity hockey team started their season. They got off to a slow start with three quick losses, being outscored by their opponents 12-2. The team kept working hard and under the leadership of captains Megan McPadden, Nicole Cataldo, Danielle Shea, Julieanne Babcock, and Katelyn Cadd, the team was able to turn their season around. They went on to win their next four games, including a win against previously undefeated Wilmington. The team ended their regular season with a record of 10-6-3, which qualified them for the state tournament. They opened the state tournament with a huge win over rival Chelmsford. In the quaterfinals, they lost to Falmouth after a hard fought game that only ended after an overtime and a shootout.

Gymnastics

A recap of the season...

Our gymnastics team has come a long way since freshman year. As freshmen, we did not win a single competition, although we tried very hard. We came in eighth in the Merrimack Valley and were a little disappointed. Sophomore and Junior years were better, winning two meets each year and placing sixth in the Merrimack Valley. Finally senior year rolled along and we had a GREAT season. Finishing third in our conference just felt amazing! Seniors Samantha Andreasen, Keri Donaghue, Stacey Etherington, Whitney Gauger, Erin Kelley, and Heather Perkins finally got their winning season. It took much determination and teamwork to get that far. In the end, through the ups and the downs, we grew to love each other and love the sport. Thanks to all our coaches and teammates for a wonderful four years and good luck in the future.

BOYS TENNIS

In their season opener, the boys tennis team faced off against a fierce Chelmsford line-up. Unfortunately, the Indians lost this opening match. However, despite this early defeat the team bounced back to win their next match against Methuen. Fueled by this win and the strong leadership of Captains Josh Bilodeau and Billy Rios, the team continued to play strongly throughout the season and as a result qualifying for the state tournament was within their reach. As the end of the regular season approached they realized that they would need to win three out of their final four matches to make states. Although they gave it their best shot their 5-0 loss to Andover officially eliminated them from state tournament contention. Still, the team ended their season on a high note with a 3-2 victory over Lawrence in the final match up of the season, which allowed the team to finish with a solid 7-9 record.

GIRLS TENNIS

The 2006-2007 Girls Tennis team had a great season. The girls bonded as a team and quickly accepted the incoming freshmen doubles team of Stephanie Cloutier and Melissa Govertsen, which allowed them to be a fierce team on the court. Although the team suffered some tough losses against Chelmsford and Methuen during the regular season, they still manage to finish the season with an 11-5 record. This record designated them as the co-champions of their division, a title that they shared with Methuen. As co-champions, the team advanced to the Division 1 North quarterfinal. In the quarterfinals, the team beat Melrose and Waltham before losing to Newton-South. Much of the season's success was due to the tremendous effort of the senior captains. Senior Captain Julia Brodowski finished the regular season with a record of 14-2. Meanwhile, fellow captain Brianna Torpey also had a strong season despite an early injury. But most importantly,the memories the team made this season, with their racket fires and cheering in German, will always be with the girls.

BASEBALL

Seniors John Palumbo, John Shea, Jeff Horton, Sean McGinness, John Dascoli, Dan Wilson, Kevin Maigatter, and Gil Ynostroza had high hopes for the 2007 baseball season. And despite the disappointing 2-6 start to the season, the boys continued to hope that their season would turn around. And things did turn around when senior Dan Wilson took the mound in an explosive game against Methuen. In this memorable game, Wilson pitched a full game and lead Billerica to a 3-2 victory. This remarkable feat renewed the team's spirit as they entered the final games of their season. And although the team did not make the state tournament, winning the final two games of the season gave them the opportunity to savor the sweet taste of victory.

SOFTBALL

With several returning starters, the expectations for the 2007 girls softball team were high. Although the team had not made it into the postseason in seven years the girls knew that this year would be different because they had a secret weapon, their starting pitcher freshman Sarah Quatieri. With Quatieri throwing from the mound, the experience of the senior players and the shining leadership of captains Megan Farrell, Jenny Lucey and Courtney Hentz, the team knew they were a force to be reckoned with. And they were. The team finished the season with a 12-8 overall record, which qualified them to enter the state tournament for the first time in seven years. In the opening round of the Division 1 Championships the team defeated the third-seeded Everett team. They then moved on to face Beverly in the second round. Despite many solid plays, the team succumbed to Beverly in a heartbreaking 3-0 loss.

BOYS SPRING TRACK

Coming into the season, the Billerica boys track and field team was the underdog in their division because many of their heavy hitters graduated in 2006. However, these low expectations didn't dampen the team's spirits. Each individual gave their personal best at each meet and exceeded their own personal best records. As these times and distances came in, many of the opposing coaches were left stunned, particulary by the unexpected, outstanding performances made by the freshmen team members, who were a driving force in many of Billerica's victories in the spring season. Senior captains Nick Szoke, Pat Dapkas, Cody Johnson and Chris Slater were also impressed by the underclassmen performances and leave Billerica Memorial High School confident that their legacy of excellence will be upheld by future BMHS classes.

GIRLS SPRING TRACK

The 2007 spring season looked promising with sixteen returning seniors and many more upperclassmen. The first meet against Tewksbury resulted in a loss, but was much closer than anticipated. The team went on to win the next several meets. As the team got stronger and stronger, more and more people started qualifying for States. The last duel meet against Methuen was the closest yet. The meet came down to the 4x400 relay. Unfortunately, Billerica came up short, but the meet was still very exciting. The team then went on to a rainy MVC meet in Lowell, where they placed 8th. The next Saturday, States were held in Lowell again. Although very hot, Sydney Fitzpatrick and Kaleigh McGrath qualified for All-States. The team made great improvements throughout the season and really came together in the end.

BOYS LACROSSE

In 2001, the boys' lacrosse team won the State Championship. Since this victorious moment, the lacrosse program has tried to replicate this feat. And the goal for the 2007 team was no different. Captains Lanny Ellis, Keith Merluzzo, Eric Blais, Steve Murray, and Mike Shaw knew they could lead their team in a championship season. In the regular season, the team proved they were a contender for this title by wiping out the opposition and finishing their season with an impressive 11-2 record. This record qualified them for post-season tournament play. In the first round of the MIAA playoffs, Billerica faced Chelmsford. Led by top scorers Captain Keith Merluzzo and sophomore Greg Melaugh, Billerica easily defeated Chelmsford 16-9. Advancing to the quarterfinal round, the team then faced off against St. John's Prep. In sudden-death overtime, Billerica won the game 11-10 when Lanny Ellis, assisted by Gary McKay, scored the victorious goal. Sadly, the team's championship quest ended when they lost a thrilling, double overtime, semi final game against the defending State Champions Duxbury.

GIRLS LACROSSE

The 2007 Girls Lacrosse season started out promising as the team roster was brimming with talent, but despite this potential the team unfortunately didn't get off on the right foot losing their first game to Tyngsborough. With this loss, the girls realized that they would have to work harder and come together as a team if they wanted to have a strong season. And they did. The team worked hard in order to win the necessary amount of games and bonded by having fun at the team pasta parties. Despite all of their hard work, however, things still didn't come together at the end of the season. Everything came down to the last game. If the girls won or tied this last game against Chelmsford, they would make it to the playoffs. Unfortunately, the game didn't turned out as the girls had hoped and ended with a devastating loss. Although the season ended with a loss, it didn't take anything away from the memorable season.

BOYS VOLLEYBALL

As the boys' volleyball season commenced, the team found themselves under new leadership as Lou Polan took over the coaching position. Coach Polan and senior captains Tim Amaral and Alex Allen had high expectations for the team. With many returning seniors, they knew they had tremendous talent to work with. Varsity seniors included Steve Wijnen-Riems, Jesse Tannetta, Nathan Vaughan, Mike Harrington, Don Strachan and D.J. Royston. As the regular season commenced, the team experienced both highs and lows. Early on they were defeated by arch-rival Chelmsford, however, they were able to bounce back and defeat a tough Andover team in an exciting 3-2 overtime win. The team continued to add up the wins, defeating both Dracut and Methuen, making this the most successful BMHS boys' volleyball team in several years. Impressively, this squad tallied up more wins than the previous two seasons combined. Despite this impressive record, however, the team unfortunately finished the season one win shy of tournament contention. Still, the team finished the season proud of their accomplishments.

Fall Play

In the Fall of 2006, the BMHS Theater Company presented their production of Shakespeare's magical work "A Midsummer Night's Dream." Produced by Ms. Yoniak, with assistance from Mr. Gagnon, the play tells the story of Demetrius (Sam Holmes), Helena (Brittany Kellett), Lysander (Kevin Santullo) and Hermia (Corinne Phelan), four young lovers that are manipulated by the mischievous woodland fairy, Puck (Nicole Celeste).

While the lovers take turns falling in and out of love with one another, a small group of mechanical workers struggle anxiously to rehearse and perform a play for the King and his new bride Hyppolyta (Jen Grue). Among these mechanical workers is Bottom (Anthony Vaglica), an interesting fellow that, like the lovers, falls prey to fairy trickery. Puck and Oberon (Jacob Throwe) trick Bottom into falling in love with the Queen of the Fairies, Titania (Victoria Vacaro), and much amusement ensues.

The production played to packed audiences for three nights straight. Each of the leads--Brittany Kellett, Sam Holmes, Corinne Phelan, Kevin Santullo, Jacob Throwe, Victoria Vacaro, and Anthony Vaglica--delivered memorable performances. Seniors Jen Grue, Nathan Vaughan, Aram Dagavarian and Dalim Mao-Nhem also performed wonderfully in their supporting roles. Of course, the production would not have been possible without the assistance of the senior stage crew members Katie Hurd and Nick Mazzone, as well as the rest of the crew.

Spring Musical

In the spring of 2007, the Billerica Fine Arts Department and the Billerica Friends of Music presented "Oliver!," Lionel Bart's musical adaptation of Charles Dickens' Oliver Twist. Cast before the December break by Ms. Yoniack and Mr. Gagnon, the show had rehearsals every day following school until opening night on March 22, 2007. The musical revolves around the character Oliver Twist and his life as an orphan in nineteenth century England. Oliver (Maria Salem) begins in an orphanage owned by Mr. Bumble (Anthony Vaglica) and the Widow Corey (Victoria Vacaro). He is then sold to Mr. Sowerberry (Nathan Wan). After running away from the funeral parlor, Oliver is placed under the wing of the pick-pocket Fagin (Alex McIsaac) and the murderous Bill Sykes (Nick Mazzone). Ultimately, Oliver is rescued and brought to his long-lost grandfather, Mr. Brownlow (Jacob Throwe). The outstanding acting and musical performances by all of the leads truly brought this heart wrenching musical to life. The supporting cast also had memorable performances. Stephanie Silva performed the role of Charlotte Sowerberry and Kristen Enos was the Longsong Seller. Finally, Katie Hurd, Katie Dupuis, Aram Dagavarian, Chris Machado and Nathan Vaughan did an excellent job on crew.

Marching Band

Things were different this year. There was a new circuit, new staff, new drill lay-out, new freshman, and adversely, a whole new attitude necessary for success. Thankfully, the seniors stepped up to kick the band into shape. There was Hubbard leading the trumpet section, Sara leading the alto saxes, Josh being short and awesome at baritone, Kyle showing Peltier how to do everything, Mike dominating in his own section, and Pete and Steve ready to pull our hair out with our endearing percussion section. With so much change, both good times were had and bad times were had. But, most importantly, the band gave those NESBA bands a run for their money and set high standards for next year. Even though we didn't win, we accomplished a lot and are proud of all the achievements we have made.Furthermore, I'd like to thank Gold Team and all of its affiliates for making the past two years of marching band more memorable (YEAH GOLD TEAM). Lastly, I'd like to thank Chuck Norris for saving that bus load of innocent children from Helzar the fire-breathing dragon. We'll never forget you.

Class Day

After officially signing out of their classes, members of the Class of 07' traveled to the Cedardale Recreation Facility to celebrate. As noon approached, the newly emancipated seniors began to arrive at Cedardale ready for a fun and relaxing day in the sun. When most of the class arrived the various activities got rolling. The mini golf course brought many competitors and the pool provided a refreshing refuge from the intense heat (and was the site of an amazing diving contest). In addition, the more competitive members of the class enjoyed intense volleyball and basketball games. As the day progressed the eating commenced and the class enjoyed a nice barbecue lunch followed by ice cream sundaes. Bellies full, the action moved to the tennis courts. After Mr. Murphy finished annihilating everyone at tennis, Krista Angelucci sang a song for the class. As the day came to an end, everyone left Cedardale exhausted but in high spirits.

Senior Prom

Before this magical night at Danversport Yacht Club in Danvers, MA, all participants had been scrambling around with the limousine preparations, tuxedo rentals, florist arrangemements and other plans. On Friday, June 1, 2007 all their efforts culminated in an amazing evening filled with dinner, dancing and mingling outside on the deck. Couples made a grand entrance to the yacht club as they walked up the red-carpeted stairs and were greeted by Mr. Murphy, Mrs. Johansen, and Mrs. Donovan. Couples and groups of friends began their evening by having their pictures taken in front of the beautiful gazebo; photographic evidence of their efforts to look their best on this spectacular night. As their stomachs began to grumble, people made their way to their tables to enjoy the delicious buffet selections. After enjoying all of the gluttonous delights, it was time to work off those calories on the dance floor. As the dance floor heated up, many found relief in the cool night air and reveled at the views of the harbor. After several hours of nonstop dancing, the evening wound down to an end. With the final song over, the seniors and their dates made their way out of the yacht club. As they entered their respective limousines, everyone knew that the night of senior prom would be one that they'd always remember.

Graduation

Tuesday, June 5, 2007, was a night of reflection and celebration. Due to inclement weather, the graduation ceremony was held indoors at the Lowell War Memorial Auditorium. But the rainy weather did not dampen the spirits of the Class of 2007, who had become accustomed to Mother Nature trying to rain on their parade.

Throughout the graduation ceremony, words of wisdom were spoken by many members of the community. Superintendent of Schools, Dr. Serio, gave a speech that drew a comparison between our generation and that of the World War II era. "We are heading to the knowledge age," Serio said. "Be part of a great generation." Meanwhile, Dr. Safier advised us to be mindful of others and to help each other out, saying, "A civil society has the best chance of being a just society." Finally, keynote speaker Colonel Hoa Generazio took the stage. An immigrant from Vietnam and a graduate of West Point military academy, Col. Generazio inspired us with his tales of perseverance. His final words echoed that of his fellow speakers, in which he encouraged us to be civic minded and to be "the can do generation."

As Col. Horazio's inspiring words echoed in our minds and our hearts, the moment had arrived for us to receive our diplomas. In front of friends and family, we marched proudly across the stage to receive something more than just a diploma, more than just a piece of paper. As we departed the stage with a sense of pride and nostalgia we were embraced by a gauntlet of teachers who had lead us to this moment and pushed toward the possibilities of the future. As the ceremonies came to a close, senior Class President Megan Farrell took the stage and declared us the BMHS graduating class of 2007. With these words we threw off our caps and embraced each other one final time.

The Blast

At 11 p.m. on the night of graduation, the Class of 2007 returned to the high school for the last time. Upon entering the gym all were amazed by the festive decorations. Everyone had fun impersonating sumo wrestlers, singing karaoke, and overcoming the obstacle course. We dined well on pizza, Chinese food, slush, and much more. One of the highlights of the night was definitely the hypnotist show. Memorable moments include Pete "Lightning Rod" Skerry, Sydney Fitzpatrick becoming a human seat belt, and many others dancing around the gym. The night ended with a raffle with many great prizes. As the gym emptied at 5 a.m. everyone went home with fond memories of BMHS.

Well, Pete, you've come along way! From winning the spelling bee in elementary school to being chosen "Science Scholar" at the Locke two years in a row --- then "Team Scholar" your final year. Wow!

Town Champions with the Athletics and Coach Stocker in 2001!

Then there's Marching Band. Taking double lessons in percussion just to catch up, and then being presented with the Summa Award by Mrs. Winchell for all that you accomplished in band that first year.

So many great friends you've made:

Your oldest friends, Kyle and Andrew, as well as your other friends from band, like Carolyn, Emily, Jen, Joby, Steve, Austin, James, Josh, Allison, and Billy; and others, like Derik, Aram, Peter, Max, Nick, and Chris. They all know how loyal, kind, funny, smart, and generous you are. Not only are Dad and I proud of your accomplishments, but also we're proud of the type of man you've become. And we're sure the best is yet to be!

Congratulations Brett!

We are very proud of you and we love you!
Always remember you can accomplish whatever you determine to do. "I can do all things through Christ who gives me strength" Philippians 4:13

Chelsea L. Mitchell

Chelsea,
You have been a joy since the day you were born. I am very proud of you and all you've done. Good luck on your future plans.
Love,
Mom

Scott McLaughlin

It feels like only yesterday,
we brought you home and into our hearts
Since then it's been all about football, hockey, and baseball cards.
From the very first day you stepped on the school bus
Year after year, your accomplishments continue to amaze us.
What a fine young man you have become,
we're so fortunate to have such a wonderful son!

Best wishes for an Amazing Future!

Love,
Mom, Dad, & Kim

Joseph Dominick

Congratulations Joe! How the years have flown by! We are all so proud of you. You are a wonderful son, brother, and friend. With your sense of humor, your kindness to others, and your dedication to do what is right, you can achieve anything you want in life.
We love you very much!
Love, Mom, David, Nana, Papa, Debbie, Marty, Natalie, Donny, Heather, Jenny, and Honey

Sara Whitney

You have touched our lives with joy and laughter how quickly this day has come
And now its time to spread you wings and enjoy the person you have become.
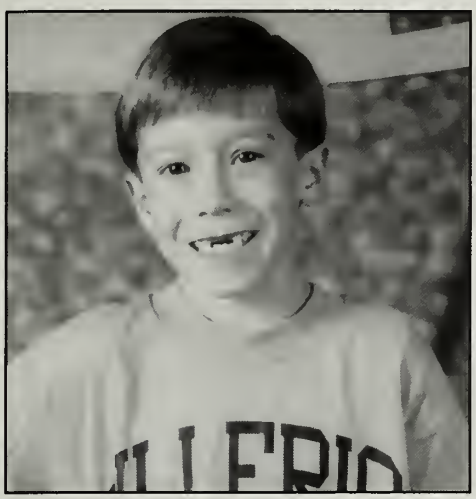
We love you,
Mom, Dad, & Gram



Nick Beaudet

Your strength, courage, and drive to succeed has made you a very fine man, indeed.
Through all the pain and heartbreak you feel,
you've grown a ton, and have nerves of steel.
Being your parents is our favorite thing to do,
Don't forget how much we love you!
Congratulations Nick!

Love,
Mom and Dad

Whitney Gauger

Our little whitle is all grown up and we couldn't be prouder! We love you all the way around the world.

Love,
Mom & Dad

Nicole Kristin Mahoney

From the day that you were born and up until today, we've always been so proud of you,
more than we can say.
The world is yours to conquer in any way you wish.
You are in control of your destiny and your definition of "success."
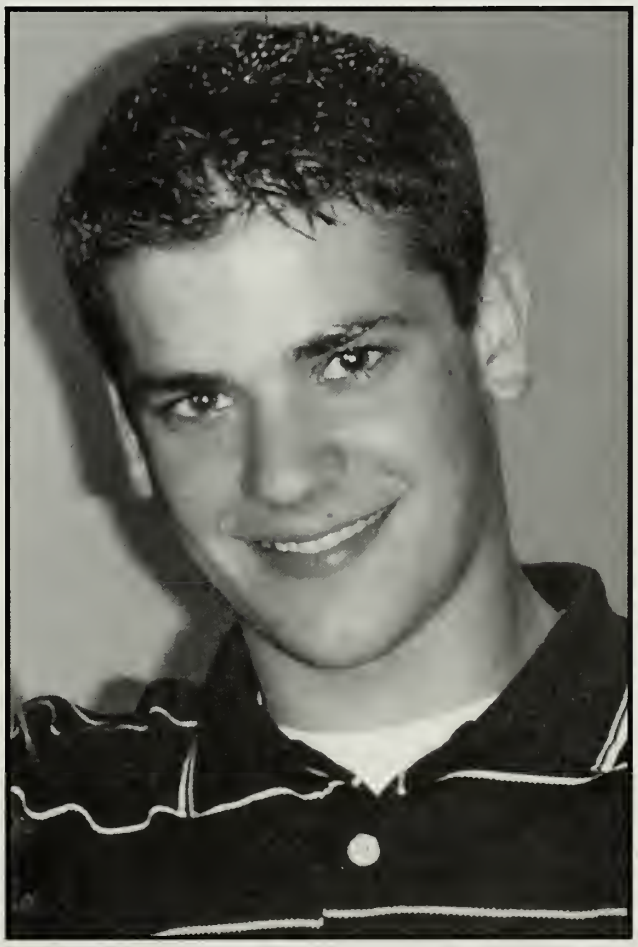
Congratulations!!
Love always,
Mom, Dad, & Kevin

Andre daSilva

Your genuine smile has always brought happiness and love all around you.
You have brought us pride and joy.
Congratulations on your achievements.
May this day of your graduation be the beginning of a very successful and happy future.

Love,
Mom, Dad, Alexandre, & Avos



Brittany Kellett

You blessed us since the day you were born,
It's hard to imagine where the time has gone.
We wish you the best in all you do,
Remember our love will always be with you.
As you grow and leave the comfort of home,
Feel safe in the knowledge that you do not walk alone.
All the great memories are stored in our minds,
They certainly will withstand the test of time.
We are so proud of the woman that you have become,
You presence in our lives has made us the lucky ones.

Love, Mom & Brian

Brittany Kellett & Scott McLaughlin

The family has been doubly blessed with arrival of you two,
We watched you grow side by side
and enjoy all that you do.
We could not be any prouder in the way that you have grown.
Your personalities define you in ways that are your own.
You will go your separate paths next year and embrace the world ahead,
Remember that we are always with you as you settle down in bed.
Our thoughts and prayers will follow you wherever you two go,
Family is never far away
this you surely know.

Love,
Your family
Mary Lou, Brian, Ricky, Cheryl, and Kim

Congratulations Chris & Courtney

May the love and support of family help guide you through life. We are proud of you both.
Love,

A daughter is a wonderful blessing,
a treasure from above.
She's laughter, warmth, and special charm,
She's thoughtfulness and love.

A daughter brings a special joy,
That comes from deep inside.
And as she grows to adulthood,
She fills your heart with pride.

With every year that passes,
She's more special than before.
Through every stage, through every age,
you love her even more.

No words can describe the memories,
The pride and gratitude too,
That comes from having a daughter
To love and cherish-- like you!

May all your wishes and hopes come true..

We love you very much!!
Dad, Mom, & Ryan

Dedication To Our Son

You're a wonderful young man who has accomplished so much,
And we're so glad
That we are the ones-who can proudly say we have a son.
All our Love,
Mom, Dad, and Genevieve

Congratulations Rachel!

You've worked so hard to get here, now enjoy the celebration - Gupta style! You've prepared yourself well for what lies ahead with school, career, and family, so now all that's left is to get into it. We're all so happy to share this with you!

Love,
Mom, Dad, Steve, Lucky, Tux, and Romeo

John Shea

Our deepest fear is not that we are inadequate.
Our deepest fear is that we are powerful beyond measure.
It is our light, not our darkness that most frightens us.
We ask ourselves, Who am I to be brilliant, gorgeous, talented, fabulous?
Actually, who are you not to be?
You are a child of God.
Your playing small does not serve the world.
There is nothing enlightened about shrinking so that other people won't feel insecure around you.
We are all meant to shine, as children do.
We were born to make manifest the glory of god that is within us.
It is not just in some of us; it is in everyone.
And as we let our own light shine, we unconsciously give other people permission to do the same.
As we are liberated from our own fear,
our presence automatically liberates others.

A Return To Love -
